From the Premier of South Australia & Minister for the Arts

Arts SA's support and funding programs create opportunities and pathways for South Australian visual artists, musicians, performers, writers, arts workers, administrators and organisations.

These programs help our artists deliver brilliant new works and events, enhance our venue and performance spaces and provide more opportunities for greater participation in the arts across our community.

The range of grants for individuals is designed to support artists at any stage of their career – whether in the emerging phase, or established artists in their own right. Funding is also available for festivals and events, to improve cultural heritage facilities, and to commission major public artworks.

In addition, the South Australian Government is strongly committed to supporting the creative and artistic aspirations of people with disabilities. When it was introduced in 2006, the Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Trust was the first of its kind in Australia. Since then, this program has helped many artists and organisations to achieve their creative endeavours.

Arts SA has recently published an information booklet for artists, arts workers and administrators with disabilities who are seeking assistance through the Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Trust.

We want South Australia to be a place where artists from all backgrounds, working in a diverse array of art forms, can reach their creative potential. We celebrate and support artists who achieve national and global success, but it is equally important that artists across the board are able to sustain fulfilling careers in South Australia.

As Minister for the Arts, and on behalf of the South Australian Government, I am proud that we continue to provide strong support for our artists and arts organisations.

I encourage you to see what is on offer in this book, and to speak to Arts SA about submitting an application in 2010.

Mike Rann

Premier of South Australia
Minister for the Arts

About Arts SA

Arts SA is a division of the Department of the Premier and Cabinet and is the South Australian Government's arts and cultural agency. Its role includes:

- developing, facilitating and administering the Government's vision and strategy for the arts and cultural sector
- advising and supporting the Minister for the Arts and the Minister Assisting the Premier in the Arts
- managing the Government's funding assistance to artists and arts organisations
- supporting the development and maintenance of our State's cultural heritage collections
- recognising and promoting the strengths and needs of our State's 'makers', 'presenters' and 'collectors' of art and cultural heritage.

Arts SA priorities

The South Australian Government is strongly committed to the role of the arts in three particular areas:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander arts and cultures
- the creative and artistic aspirations of people with disabilities
- social inclusion and building stronger, more cohesive communities, (for more information see www.socialinclusion.sa.gov.au).
- Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Trust (page 19)
- Community arts development (page 18).

If you are applying in other programs and your project addresses these priorities, be sure to highlight this in your application.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) applicants, and all applicants with ATSI content in their project, should contact Arts SA, before submitting an application.

Funding programs with specific interests in these areas include:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) arts development program (page 12)

Working with children in art

Arts SA has introduced protocols to address the depiction of children in works, exhibitions and publications that are funded by Arts SA.

The protocols are designed to help artists and arts organisations understand their legal obligations and to establish responsible steps for artists when they are involving children in the creation, exhibition or distribution of creative works (includes photography, painting, printmaking, performance, sculpture, written text, drawing and digital imagery).

Protocols can be downloaded from www.arts.sa.gov.au (under support and funding)

Criteria

These criteria apply generally across Arts SA's funding programs. Some programs also have specific criteria, which are detailed in the relevant sections of this handbook and in the program guidelines (page 8).

Artistic merit, quality, innovation & originality

- The ability of the artist and the project to contribute to the development of their artform by embracing innovation and originality, and to tackle the artistic challenge of the project.

Audience development

- Impact on growing audiences or the audience's critical understanding of the artform.

Community participation

- Access, social inclusion, cultural diversity and artistic benefit to the community. The project's contribution to broadening the range of people participating in, and experiencing, the arts by providing more varied and greater access.

Cultural leadership

- Impact on South Australia's reputation as a centre of cultural leadership and the resultant economic benefits.

Professional development

- Impact on enhancing the professional reputation of artists and advancement of their careers.

Viable planning

- Level of resources and planning (including financial) identified to consolidate the project's potential.

Eligibility

Some programs have specific eligibility requirements. Further details are outlined in this handbook and the guidelines.

Applicants must be Australian citizens or have permanent resident status and be living, or primarily located in, South Australia.

The following applications are ineligible:

- Projects already completed, or due to be completed, before the commencement of the funding period. Funding will not be provided retrospectively.
- Projects without professional arts outcomes, such as amateur productions, the self-publication of literary works, fundraising, competitions, awards and prizes, as well as projects forming part of a course of study, including graduation activities.

- Screen-based projects aimed at the cinema, film festivals or television, and media projects with a purely commercial outcome.

Some activity will be eligible when incorporated into projects in other artform areas. Speak to Arts SA if you are unsure.

- Start-up business costs and the purchase of basic equipment. Speak to Arts SA if you are unsure.
- Organisations currently in receipt of Arts SA's Industry development (organisations) funding should refer to page 21 for information on eligibility.

Assessment

Peer assessment is central to Arts SA's funding process. Peer panels make recommendations to the Minister for the Arts or the Minister Assisting the Premier in the Arts.

Funding is approved by the relevant Minister based on the recommendations of the peer panels.*

Arts SA provides the Ministers with the names of individuals who are recognised for their artistic achievements, artform knowledge and professional standing. Most are practising artists but panels also include arts managers, arts workers and others with relevant knowledge and experience. Individuals on peer assessment panels are usually appointed for a two-year term by the Minister.

Arts SA maintains a register of peers. For more information on becoming a peer panel member go to www.arts.sa.gov.au

 With the exception of the Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Trust which is approved by the Public Trustee.*

Processing

Applications are registered and processed by Arts SA. A letter acknowledging receipt of the application is sent out within 14 working days.

Most applications are assessed by a peer assessment panel. If necessary, an application may be sent to external assessors for comment.

Peer assessment panel meetings

Panels usually meet for one to two days. They rigorously assess applications against given criteria to prepare recommendations for the relevant Minister.

There are usually a greater number of worthy applications than the available funds can support.

Approval, notification and advice

The Minister considers the panels' recommendations.* Once approved, all applicants will be notified of the outcome by mail. All applicants are encouraged to seek feedback from Arts SA to help with future applications.

 With the exception of the Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Trust which is approved by the Public Trustee.*

It is important to note that while Arts SA administers the funding programs, it does not determine the final outcome.

Guidelines

Arts SA guidelines can be downloaded from www.arts.sa.gov.au and are available in hardcopy from Arts SA.

This handbook is only a summary of Arts SA's funding programs. Funding guidelines are essential reading when preparing an application.

If you are unsure which guidelines relate to your project speak to the appropriate program officer.

How to apply

Step 1

Read this handbook to determine which program is suitable for your application. Start on page nine and follow the page references to individual funding categories. If you are not eligible for any of the funding in this handbook, contact Arts SA for information on other arts funding sources (go to page 22).

Step 2

Read the relevant guidelines and ensure you have the correct application form.

Step 3

Consider how your project meets the criteria outlined in the handbook (page 6) and the funding guidelines.

Step 4

Discuss your proposal with the arts development officer specific to your program.

Step 5

Prepare a first draft.

Step 6

If you are unclear about completing the application, contact the relevant Arts SA officer (see page 27). Alternatively, talk to your artform service organisation (e.g. Ausdance, SA Writers' Centre, Craftsouth, Community Arts Network) or someone who has successfully submitted an application.

Step 7

Prepare your budget and support material.

Step 8

Prepare a final application. Allow enough time to check the application or ask someone else to read it. This can help clarify whether you have clearly described the project and addressed the criteria. Allow enough time to make any further adjustments.

Step 9

Submit the required number of copies of the entire application and the support material by the due date.

Late applications are not accepted.

Arts SA application forms can be downloaded from www.arts.sa.gov.au and are available in hardcopy from Arts SA.

Select your funding program

Choose from the following programs and follow the page references for details of grants and categories.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) arts development

A program which specifically supports Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) artists, arts workers and arts and cultural groups involved in literature, music, dance, theatre and visual arts. This program offers skills development opportunities including mentorships, master classes and work placements as well as funding for ATSI artists, arts administrators and arts and cultural groups for the development of new work.

The ATSI arts development program offers two categories:

- Project assistance
- Individual artist development

Go to page 12.

Independent makers and presenters

Supports the State's independent arts sector by offering grants to assist professional development, creation of new work and presentation of projects. Most applicants will be individual artists and groups of artists; however, organisations, local and State Government agencies, community groups and arts-related businesses can also apply when their projects involve South Australian artists. Go to page 10.

Contemporary music

Supports the development of original contemporary music and the sustainability and diversity of the local contemporary music sector. Individuals, groups, companies and organisations can apply, however, it is expected that the major beneficiaries of the program will be independent contemporary musicians. Go to page 13.

Public art and design

Supports the commissioning of high quality works of art and design for public places. Applicants in this program will be individuals, organisations, (including those in receipt of ongoing Arts SA funding), community groups and local and State Government agencies. The private sector can seek advice on all aspects of the commissioning process, and can apply for funding support in partnership with an eligible applicant. Go to page 16.

Community arts development

Supports arts projects that build stronger, more cohesive communities. The priorities of the program are to support community engagement and celebration, cultural diversity, social inclusion and increased access to the arts for targeted communities disadvantaged by geographic, social and economic factors. Go to page 18.

Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Trust

Supports projects and initiatives that develop and celebrate the creative and artistic aspirations of South Australians with disabilities. Go to page 19.

Arts facilities and equipment

Supports the establishment and improvement of arts and cultural heritage facilities; the purchase of equipment that will improve, establish or convert premises for arts and cultural activities; and the purchase of equipment that enhances arts and cultural practice and realises direct artistic and cultural outcomes.

Applicants to this program will be not for profit arts organisations, community groups and local governments that operate arts, cultural and museum facilities. Go to page 19.

2012 Adelaide Festival awards for literature

Supports a broader Australian writing culture through national and State based awards and fellowships. The awards are held biennially and are announced during Adelaide Writers' Week. Go to page 20.

Industry development (organisations)

Provides annual or triennial funding to organisations that play a key role in building a robust arts and cultural community in our State. Go to page 21.

Contact Arts SA if you are not sure which program best suits your project.

Advice for ATSI and non ATSI applicants and projects

Arts SA endeavours to work with artists and organisations to ensure that acknowledgment and respect for ATSI people and cultures is upheld at every stage of a project's development.

It is strongly recommended that applicants seek direction from Arts SA in the early stages of project development and that every effort is made to ensure there is no misrepresentation or appropriation of ATSI cultures.

Go to the Arts SA website for more advice for ATSI and non ATSI funding applications.

Contemporary music

Supporting the development of original contemporary music and the sustainability and diversity of the local contemporary music sector. Individuals, groups, companies and organisations can apply, however, it is expected that the major beneficiaries of the program will be independent contemporary musicians.

Through this program funding is available for recording, marketing, distribution, touring, residencies, mentoring and skills development.

Applicants can only apply for one grant per funding round with the exception of recording and marketing funding which can form a combined application.

Recording and manufacture for national release

Funding for the production of quality master recordings for commercial release in the national or international marketplace. Applicants should have a proven track record in performing and be able to demonstrate a demand for their product.

Funding is available for different stages of the recording process and may be used to support costs such as: studio hire, producers' and engineers' fees, mixing, mastering, design work and printing, manufacture and remixing. Mentoring and skills development

Individual artists and industry professionals may apply for funding to develop a one-on-one relationship with an outstanding artist or industry professional. Mentoring opportunities are usually self-directed, and could comprise a set period of practical one-on-one experiences or a series of meetings for artistic and critical direction and career guidance.

Individual artists and industry professionals may apply for funding to attend master classes, workshops and conferences for intensive skills development. Costs of travel, accommodation, per diems, conference and workshop registration fees and fees for professional service may be funded.

The following are not eligible:

- certificate, degree, or other courses of ongoing study in government or private institutions in Australia or overseas
- activities already supported through Arts SA's Contemporary music program including Fuse, Ausmusic, Northern Sound System, and Off the Couch.

Amounts available:

Up to $10,000

Public art and design

Public art and design promotes, facilitates and supports the commissioning of high quality works of art and design for public places. The aim is to enhance the public experience of contemporary art and encourage professional opportunities for artists.

Applicants to this program will be individuals, organisations, (including those in receipt of Arts SA funding), community groups and local and State Government agencies. The private sector can seek advice on the commissioning of artworks for public places and is eligible for financial assistance when in partnership with an eligible applicant.

Projects in the public realm may be functional or non-functional, permanent or temporary. They may be undertaken through a collaborative approach between artists and other design professionals or may be realised with the involvement of community members, either through consultation or participation.

Project seed funding

Funding towards fees for South Australian artists participating in the concept development stage of a project. It is anticipated that Arts SA's project development advice and seed funding will generate further project opportunities and enhance South Australia's reputation as a leader in the arts.

Amounts available:

Should be discussed with Arts SA, range from $2000 - $10,000

Closing date:

Open

Commission funding support

Funding toward the commissioning of quality new work designed by South Australian artists for installation within high profile, publicly accessible environments in South Australia.

Applicants will have an artist's concept or developed proposal they seek to commission. Public art and design commissions may involve a range of approaches and participants, but central to the project will be the professional artist.

Amounts available:

Up to $10,000

Closing dates:

12 February 2010
notification April 2010
23 April 2010
notification June 2010

Public art and design: major commission

Support to commission significant new work by leading South Australian artists, to be presented in high profile, publicly accessible environments in South Australia. Major commissions in public art and design recognise the role that outstanding arts projects play in enhancing South Australia's reputation as a centre of arts excellence.

Applicants to this category will have an artist's concept or developed proposal they seek to commission. The commissioning process must be sufficiently advanced to enable the applicant to provide plans, indicative drawings, artist's impressions and maquette (where relevant) of the proposed work.

Assistance can be sought for every stage of a project's development, including further concept design and the implementation, fabrication and installation costs. It is a requirement that commissioners have a minimum of 30-50% of the project's implementation budget.

Amount available:

One grant of $100,000

Closing date:

14 May 2010
notification July 2010

Sculpture hire opportunity

Arts SA manages an annual art hire program, displaying sculptural works for a 12-month period in the foyer of the State Administration Centre in Victoria Square. Appropriate freestanding artworks need to meet specific criteria. Suitable sculptural works by practising professional artists will be assessed for potential selection and display.

Amounts available:

Negotiable, relative to the value of the artworks

Closing date:

18 June 2010
notification August 2010

Public art and design

Emerging curator's project

Funding for a curator, whose career is in its early stages, to prepare and install an exhibition in Arts SA and selected offices in the State Administration Centre. Artwork is selected to provide exposure for emerging South Australian visual artists and craft and design practitioners, and is generally hired for 12 months.

Amounts available:

$4800 curatorial & administration fee

Closing date:

12 March 2010
notification May 2010

Other services

The following services are provided on an ongoing basis at no cost, whether or not you are applying for funding:

- advice and assistance to artists and commissioners regarding all aspects of commissioning public art.
- South Australian visual artists register, a comprehensive register of practitioners, curators and project managers. To view the register or download the application form go to www.arts.sa.gov.au

Community arts development

The fund is divided into three categories:

- Project
- Festival
- Development

Applicants will be:

- arts and cultural organisations, (including those in receipt of Arts SA funding)
- State & local government agencies
- not for profit and community organisations and groups
- festival and event committees.

Applicants must be legally constituted and based in South Australia.

Funded activity must be delivered in South Australia to provide direct benefits to South Australians.

Contact Arts SA to discuss whether your project fits the criteria.

Project

To support innovative projects developed by communities and organisations in consultation with artists and arts workers.

Priority will be given to projects which address the increased participation in creative activity by members of the community who are disadvantaged by geographic, economic or social factors.

Funding is available for arts and cultural activities that:

- address issues of community engagement, equity, access, cultural diversity and social inclusion – these activities may include a one off event or initiative, or a one off workshop series or exhibition.
- introduce new audiences to the arts or extend the arts experiences of existing audiences.

Amounts available:

Up to $30,000

Closing date:

31 August 2010

notification December 2010

Festival

To support small scale regional and metropolitan festivals to develop and enhance their arts content.

Funding is available for

- employment of professional artists to program, perform or exhibit
- development of new work in collaboration with professional artists, local artists and communities
- employment of festival staff including artistic directors, coordinators and event managers
- infrastructure associated with presenting a festival such as technical requirements, marquees and site dressing.

Amounts available:

Up to $15,000

Closing date:

31 August 2010

notification December 2010

Development

Short notice funding to develop a project or festival that supports the aims of the program. Funds may be used to employ an artist or arts worker to develop a project in consultation with the community, or to assist in developing a project and identifying resources.

Amounts available:

Up to $4000

Closing date:

Open

The following are not eligible:

- individuals
- unincorporated groups
- schools
- major organisations in receipt of triennial Community arts development funding
- commercial, for-profit, fundraising, competitions, awards and prizes
- annual programs
- projects already completed, or due to be completed, before the funding period
- projects without professional arts outcomes — such as amateur productions and the self-publication of literature
- infrastructure costs associated with running an organisation
- equipment, capital works or maintenance projects.

Festivals in receipt of annual or triennial funding from Arts SA are not eligible for the Festival category but can apply through the Project category.

Supporting projects and initiatives that develop and celebrate the creative and artistic aspirations of South Australians with disabilities.

Funding is available to individuals with disabilities, not for profit community organisations and groups, arts and cultural organisations, including those in receipt of ongoing Arts SA funding, and local, State and Federal Government agencies. It is expected that people with disabilities will be the primary initiators of projects supported through this program.

Further information about this program is available in an accessible information booklet. Contact Arts SA on 8463 5444 to have a copy sent to you.

Eligibility

Individuals applying to this program must identify as having a disability. Organisations must show how artists with a disability have initiated or contributed to the project's development.

Funding includes:

- support for development and presentation of arts projects by individuals and organisations
- initiatives that increase access to the arts for people with disabilities
- short notice funding for projects that occur outside the funding round
- support for individual emerging artists in the first five years of developing their artistic skills

Amounts available:

Individuals up to $10,000
Organisations up to $20,000
Short notice up to $3000
Emerging artists up to $1500

Arts SA has produced an accessible information handbook for the Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Trust. It has all the information you need to apply for a grant.

Arts facilities and equipment

Supports the establishment and improvement of arts and cultural heritage facilities. This can include projects that:

- establish, convert or improve facilities
- provide disability access, and
- purchase of equipment.

Projects should enhance arts and cultural heritage practices and achieve direct artistic and cultural outcomes.

The program has three funding categories:

- capital improvements,
- equipment purchases and
- feasibility studies.

Funding is not available for: building maintenance, general office equipment (such as furniture, photocopiers, IT systems, chairs and bookshelves), equipment for advertising or promotional purposes (such as signage, flags, banners, posters, brochures, websites & marketing materials) or musical instruments.

South Australian not for profit arts organisations, community groups and local governments that operate arts, cultural and museum facilities are eligible to apply.

- Museum facilities must be registered or accredited in accordance with the Community Museums Program administered by History SA.

- Arts and community organisations occupying government buildings are eligible for equipment grants.

- Educational institutions and buildings owned by the State Government or occupied by State Government agencies are not eligible.

Subject to matching funds.

2012 Adelaide Festival awards for literature

Every two years these national awards are presented during Adelaide Writers' Week as part of the Adelaide Festival of Arts. The awards celebrate our national writing culture, and include awards and fellowships specific to South Australian writers.

Guidelines and application forms for the 2012 Adelaide Festival awards for literature will be available from June 2011.

Awards and fellowships are offered in the following categories:

National Awards

- Premier's award
$10,000
This award is given by the judging panel to the best overall published work. The $10,000 is added to the winner's category prize. Applicants cannot self-nominate in this category.
- Children's literature award
$15,000
For a published children's book, fiction or non-fiction. The book must have a substantial literary content.
- Fiction award
$15,000
For a published novel or a collection of short stories.
- Innovation award
$10,000
For published books which depart from the conventional use of genre by borrowing elements from a number of genres such as fiction, non-fiction, biography, autobiography, poetry or cultural criticism.
- Non-fiction award
$15,000
For a published work of non-fiction. Judges in this category are seeking evidence of a command of the subject as well as a fluent and outstanding literary style. There is no restriction in this category regarding subject matter.
- John Bray poetry award
$15,000
For a published collection of poetry. The award honours the late Dr John Bray for his distinguished services to Australian poetry.

South Australian awards and fellowships

- Jill Blewett playwright's award
$10,000
Supports the creative development of a play by an emerging South Australian writer with the support of the State Theatre Company of South Australia. The play can be from a broad range of theatrical genres including musicals, works for children and youth and cross-artform collaborations.
- Unpublished manuscript award
$10,000
For an unpublished manuscript by a South Australian writer to be published by Wakefield Press.
- Barbara Hanrahan fellowship
$15,000
Created in 1993 in honour of the distinguished South Australian writer and visual artist, the late Barbara Hanrahan. Open to South Australian writers working in the areas of fiction, poetry, drama, scriptwriting, autobiography, essays, major histories, literary criticism or other expository or analytical prose.
- Carclew Fellowship
$15,000
Established in 1988 this fellowship is open to South Australian writers for young people working in the genres of fiction, drama, poetry or screenwriting.

Industry development (organisations)

Industry development provides annual or triennial funding for small to medium arts organisations.

Organisations must either be currently funded through this program, or be recognised by Arts SA as having a track record of successful Arts SA funded projects. The organisations should also play a vital role in the South Australian arts sector by:

- creating and developing new, often experimental and risky artworks
- exploring new and existing artforms and arts practice
- providing direct services for developing and assisting South Australian artists
- developing new audiences for the arts in South Australia
- creating access points to the arts for the broader South Australian community.

Becc Bates
Arts Development Officer
Telephone: 08 8463 5414
Email: bates.becc@dpc.sa.gov.au

Please note that meeting the funding criteria and performing well over the past funding period will not necessarily entitle an applicant to ongoing funding beyond the current period. Ultimately the success of the application will rest on its merits against the criteria in competition with all other applicants.

Organisations receiving Industry development funding may also apply to:

- Independent makers and presenters
 - Building pathways
 - Project grants (for international touring and expansion of markets)
 - Artists in residence
 - Major commission
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) arts development
- Contemporary music
- Arts facilities and equipment
- Public art and design
- Richard Llewellyn Arts and Disability Trust
- Community arts development

Organisations considering an application to any of these other programs must discuss the proposal with the relevant program officer before making the application.

Other arts funding

The Australia Council for the Arts is the Australian Government's arts funding and advisory body. Most projects and activity funded by Arts SA will also be eligible to apply to the Council.

For more information contact the Australia Council for the Arts on 02 9215 9000 or go to www.australiacouncil.gov.au

The following agencies receive funding through Arts SA to foster the development of particular areas of arts practice.

- The South Australian Film Corporation (SAFC) is the State's peak agency for the screen industries. SAFC develops and invests in feature film, documentary, TV and digital media.

SAFC also supports the professional development of practitioners and the activities of screen culture organisations through a further series of programs and initiatives. For more information contact SAFC, Telephone: 08 8348 9300 or go to www.safilm.com.au

- The Adelaide Film Festival Investment Fund provides equity investment in Australian screen product, including feature films, documentaries, shorts and cross platform work, primarily for completion in time to premiere at the Adelaide Film Festival.

For more information contact the Adelaide Film Festival, Telephone: 08 8348 9318 or go to www.adelaidefilmfestival.org

- The Carclew Youth Arts Board (formerly SAYAB) supports youth arts, including offering grants for:

- artists who are 26 years or younger at the time of applying and who are not yet fully professional
- presentation projects aimed at South Australian audiences under 27 years of age.

For more information contact Carclew, Telephone: 08 8361 9777 or go to www.carclew.com.au

- Country Arts SA provides grant funding to support arts and community cultural development projects which benefit regionally based artists, arts workers and communities.

For more information contact Country Arts SA, Telephone: 08 8444 0400 or go to www.countryarts.org.au

- History SA administers the Community history fund, which provides assistance to individuals and community organisations undertaking research, publications and projects on South Australian history.

For more information contact History SA, Telephone: 08 8203 9888 or go to www.history.sa.gov.au
